

LOCKE MODERN COUNTRY STORE EST. 1836

Domaine de la Condemine Janny Macon-Peronne Le Clou 2016, France / ($16.95) $15.25

Pierre and Véronique Janny bought this estate in 1982 and now continue their work with their daughter Céline. With mineral intervention and no use of oak, this Maconnais has a beautiful light golden hue and floral aromas. The palate expresses a beautiful balance of minerality and fruity notes with signature freshness.

Chardonnay

Wolfberger Auxerrois 2018, Alsace / ($13.95) $12.55

The Wolfberger winery was founded in 1902 when a group of wine-growers in Eguisheim decided to join forces to create one of the first cooperatives in Alsace. Auxerrois blanc happens to be the third most widely planted grape in Alsace. Recent DNA fingerprinting suggests that it is a cross between Gouais blanc and Pinot, the same ancestry as Chardonnay. This pale yellow wine shows an intense nose of fresh white fruits, rhubarb and spring flowers. The palate is fresh and easy with lots of fruit and a slight spice on the finish.

Auxerrois

Ottella Lugana DOC Le Creete 2018, Italy / ($24.95) $22.45

Azienda Agricola Ottella was founded in 1880 and its owners, the Montresor family, have been grape growers for many generations. This wine is from a small parcel called "Le Creete", made of white chalky soil that lends to the wine's exceptional character. Fragrant aromas of white flowers, tropical fruits and citrus mingle together with crushed wild herbs on the nose. The vibrant, focused palate shows an understated elegance, offering flavors of grapefruit, pineapple and saline balanced with bright acidity.

Domaine de la Mordorée Côtes du Rhône Rosé 2018, France / ($16.95) $15.25

In 1986, the brothers Christophe and Fabrice Delorme, along with their father Francis, decided to dedicate themselves to their passion for wine. They bought an estate in Tavel and now, with 135 acres spread throughout some of the most impressive appellations of the southern Rhône, Christophe Delorme and his brother have done nothing but produce one exquisite wine after another. Loads of cherry, spice, and dried orange peel aromas welcome you into the glass. A rich, medium-bodied palate is seamless and elegant in style with a good concentration of flavor and acidity with a long finish.

Alain Jaume Clos de Sixte Lirac 2015, France / 750ml ($23.95) $21.55 Magnums ($47.95) $43.15***

Established in 1826, the Alain Jaume Winery boasts both the exceptional terroir of the Southern Rhone Valley and a long line of dedicated winemakers. This Clos de Sixte Lirac comes from an appellation that shares a similar terroir with Chateauneuf du Pape, yet is located just across the river, on the western side of the Rhone. On the nose there are aromas of red and black ripe fruits. The palate is full, with blackberries, black cherries, licorice, and roasted herbs. Pick up a magnum to enjoy with family for the holidays or lay down for a few years!

Navigator Cabernet Sauvignon 2017, California / ($16.95) $15.25

Sourced from multiple vineyards across California, the Navigator Cabernet Sauvignon is a complex yet easy drinking wine. Flavors of dark red fruit with notes of baking spice and coco envelop the palate and lead to a soft yet lengthy finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon

Château Hallet Sauternes 2015 375ml, France / ($18.95) $17.05

Stone fruits with hints orange rind and honeysuckle welcome you into the glass. The palate is ripe and rich with bright acidity on the finish. Makes a good match not only for desserts, but also our paté and strong cheeses.
