Domaine de la Bergerie Savennieres "Croix Picot" 2016 France

Retail: $34.95 | Sale: $31.45

Domaine de la Bergerie is in the heart of Côteaux du Layon AOC in the larger Anjou region of the central Loire Valley. The story started in 1964, when the young and energetic 37 year old, Marie-Scholastique Horeau purchased the estate. Bringing the vines back from industrial farming was a task, and she was one of the first women to own and operate a wine estate in the Loire Valley. Fresh and fruit forward, this wine shows elements of grapefruit, white stone fruit, zesty minerality, and a lingering finish.

Treveri Blanc de Blanc Brut Zero NV Washington

Retail: $13.95 | Sale: $12.55

Treveri Cellars is a family-owned sparkling wine in Wapato, WA. Their Brut Zero is the driest of all of the sparkling wines they produce in our Core Tier. Coming from all Yakima Valley fruit, this wine is citrus-driven with tons of minerality and nice persistent bubbles. It's perfect as an aperitif or pair with a variety your favorite summer meals.

100% Chardonnay

Boedecker Pinot Noir 2016 Oregon

Retail: $27.95 | Sale: $25.15

Boedecker Cellars, owned by husband-and-wife team of Stewart Boedecker and Athena Pappas, is a full-blown urban winery that churns out some of Oregon's best pinot noir. The 2016 Pinot Noir draws you in with heavy aromas of sour cherry and cranberry, with earthy undertones of mushrooms. On the palate you will find these same red fruit flavors, which lead into a smooth, complex finish. Significant time in seasoned French oak contributes to the complexity and structure of this wine, while also adding a very interesting smoky component on the nose and palate.

100% Pinot Noir

Cuarenta Cuarenta 40/40 Cabernet Franc 2017 Argentina

Retail: $24.95 | Sale: $22.45

40/40 planted their Cabernet Franc in 2013 in rocky soils with a high percentage of clay. All wines are fermented with indigenous yeasts and are aged 12 months in barrels. Aromas of fresh green and red bell pepper welcome you in to the glass, followed by a juicy, fruity palate and a biting acidity that gives it personality and style. The finish is spicy and persistent with polished, round tannins.
